

Directions to Battersea Garden Project

By public transport from the North

Circle or district line underground to Sloane Square and then walk down Lower Sloane Street and Chelsea Bridge Road and then over Chelsea Bridge. Or catch No. 137 bus alighting at the first stop over Chelsea Bridge. Enter the Park by the Chelsea Gate, walk down Carriage Drive North for about 150 metres and take the footpath off to the left in the direction of the tennis courts. The Garden is immediately behind the tennis courts on the right of the path. Alternatively take a main line train from Victoria to Battersea Park (one stop) – see next section for directions from the station.

By public transport from the South

By main line train to Battersea Park Station (services into and out of Victoria). On leaving Battersea Park Station turn right and then right again into Queenstown Road and proceed as far as the roundabout. Enter the Park through the gate on the roundabout and then turn right into Carriage Drive East. The Garden is immediately past the Millennium Stadium on the right hand side (about 500 metres from the park gate).

By main line train to Queenstown Road Station (services in and out of Waterloo). Turn right out of the station into Queenstown Road and walk to the roundabout. Enter the Park through the gate on the roundabout and then turn right into Carriage Drive East. The Garden is immediately past the Millennium Stadium on the right hand side (about 500 metres from the park gate).

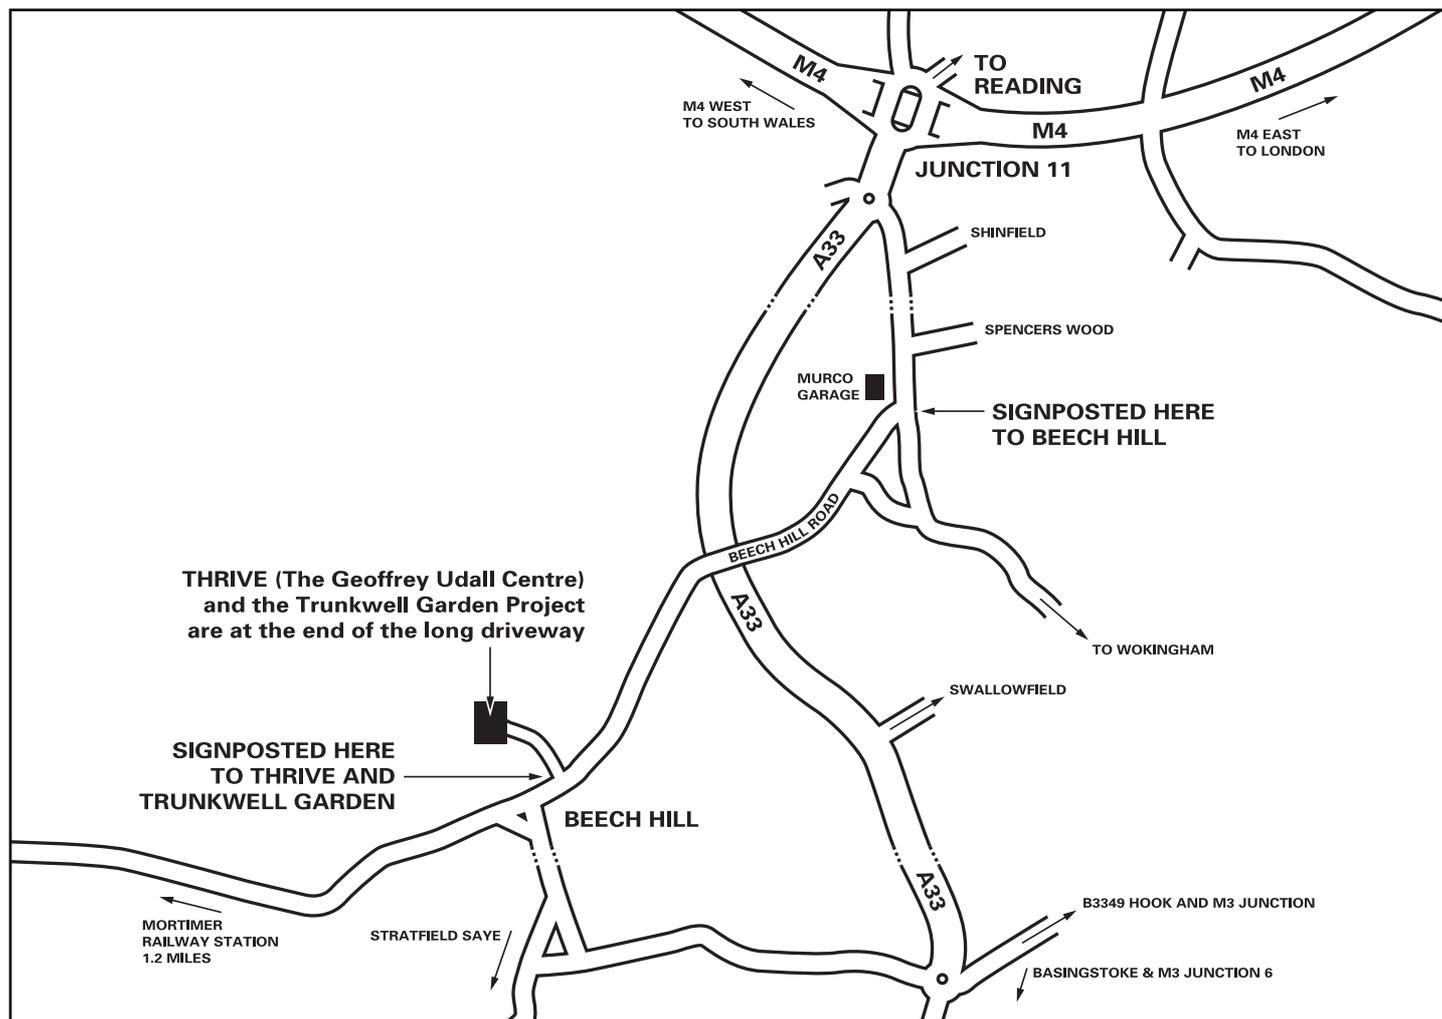

By bus

No. 137 (from Streatham Hill/Clapham) – get off at the stop before Chelsea Bridge and follow the directions as for “public transport from the north” (see above). No. 44 (from Vauxhall or Battersea/Wandsworth/Tooting) and No. 344 (from Southwark/Elephant/Vauxhall or Battersea/Clapham Junction) – get off at the junction with Queenstown Road. Walk up Queenstown Road and follow the directions from Queenstown Road Railway Station.

By car

Enter the park by the Chelsea Gate and park in the Car Park on Carriage Drive North (charges £1.00 per hour for up to four hours) then walk down Carriage Drive East and the Garden is on the left. Please note disabled drivers and those with disabled passengers should contact the project so the appropriate arrangements can be made for vehicular access to the site.

Directions to the Thrive National Office and the Trunkwell Garden Project in Beech Hill, Reading

The village of Beech Hill is close to the Berkshire/Hampshire border, and about 7 miles south of Reading.

From the South

After passing the Wellington monument on your left, at the next roundabout turn left and follow the signs to Beech Hill. At Beech Hill turn right at the Old Elm Tree pub, you will see signs to Thrive and Trunkwell Garden in about 100 yards.

From the North

Turn south onto the A33 at Junction 11 of the M4. At the first roundabout, turn left, taking the road through Three Miles Cross and Spencers Wood. Just after the Murco Garage, turn right into Beech Hill Road. Follow this road until you reach the village of Beech Hill. At Beech Hill, you will see the signs to Thrive and Trunkwell Garden.

Thrive

The Geoffrey Udall Centre
Beech Hill, Reading RG7 2AT

Tel: 0118 988 5688

Fax: 0118 988 5677

Email: info@thrive.org.uk

Web: www.thrive.org.uk

Trunkwell Garden Project

Tel/Fax: 0118 988 4844